

Art & Craft Club Activities

Art and craft enhance the creativity among the students, their products will show their intelligence, and helps in expressing their ideas and giving shape to their thinking power. It will enhance the interest and positivity towards the life. They learn to value and appreciate each other work and develop the compatible skills.

Journalism Club

Journalism is the reportage of current events in printed form, specifically newspapers and electronic communication in the 20th century. Students will come out with best possible decisions about their lives, communities, societies and their government. Journalism will inculcate ethics and morals in an individual and give a chance for innovative ideas and sustainability, the value of news and to empower the informed in a best possible way in the students. They will follow accuracy and verification of facts in writeups like reports, editorial columns, articles and help in research methodology.

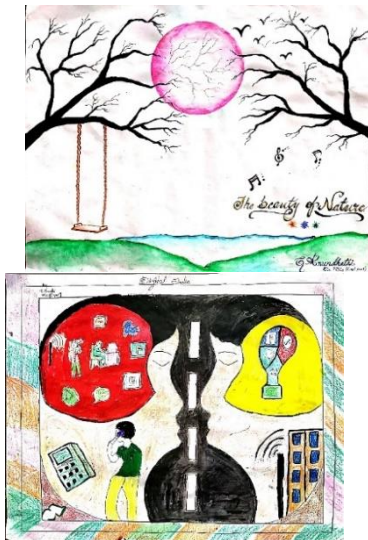

Dance Club:

Dance elevates the life style of an individual, it helps in the spiritual, mental and physical growth of students. Students will relax themselves by this art and if they expertise in this field they can become instructors also.

Drawing and Painting Club:

Drawing is a foundation of art; it is the line of structure of an object. Most works start with a drawing. Painting aids students acquire hand-eye coordination, it can help students learn sizes, shapes, patterns and designs. painting help students to develop their decision-making skills.

Current Affairs Club

Current affairs club includes the collection of events that happens in current time with the help of printed and electronic media. Globalization has transformed the entire world into a global village, events happening around will influence people. Current affairs club encourages students to update themselves with latest current affairs regularly. The club members collect and record the important events, they can access any time. The club also conducts a monthly quiz on current affairs which helps them in the forthcoming competitive exams.

Drama and Puppetry:

Drama and puppetry are the oldest art forms exist in our culture throughout the world in all the societies. Now a days, it on the verge of extension. In order to retain our culture, we are inculcating this art among the students.

The epics, history and contemporary drama of the world are the main characters in this act form. It will improve confidence levels, acting skills, dialogue delivery and storytelling skills etc.

Science Club:

Wonderful platform for students which provides a safe environment to learn, to explore and to discover new things. Science club explores the talent and spark in the students which help them in boosting their confidence levels. It will incite questioning power like why, what, how, where and when it happened. They will make themselves ready for science demonstrations, problem solving approach and science quiz.

1. Film Review Club:

Film Review Club focuses on the observation skills, listening skills, analytical skills, critical thinking power, presentation skills and writing skills of students. It will improve grasping and memory power of the students.

2. Book Review Club:

Book Review Club focuses on enhancing the reading habits in the students. Further it focuses on the analysing skills, writing skills and presentation skills of the students. They are provided with magazines, articles, journals available in the library to read and write reviews.